

The museum of art gallery and history

If you still wondering which place that you will visit with your family, you can get the answer here. You can introduce and educate more your family through visiting the museum. There are a lot of museums; you can visit one of them. African American museum will be interesting decision since the museum not only provides you nice and awesome arts collection but you can learn the history in order to know closer the African American life style and their contribution for the American culture. You can learn about it through certain services that the museum gives to you such as the arts collection, workshops, lectures and other educational programs.

African American museum is an institution dedicated to people's intention whether its research, its presentation, knowledge or acquisition. You will not only get knowledge from the history of the Afro but you can enjoy its culture through its arts collection and the programs that the museum usually held. The program will be like children book fair, workshops and others. If you ever visit the museum you will not be bored since there are permanent and temporally exhibit. The permanent collection will be the main history of the African American like their journey to America.